BROOKLYN PITCHERS ROUNDING INTO FORM AT HOT SPRINGS

Left to right: Babe Magowan, Ed Pfeiffer, Carl Combs, Larry Cheney and Edward Smith. Inset: Washington Park, looking across the river.

Manager Wilbert Robinson is reported to be well pleased with the way his players are showing their pitching form at Hot Springs. While they are all in good shape, the club physician, Dr. Sigmund, declares that Edward Smith is considerably ahead of the others in development, being a little taller, perfect physique and in mid-season form.

AUSTRALIAN FIGHTER MEETS HIS MATCH

Leo Dery and Jim Lee ready for battle.

Governor Whitman issued a decree that Leo Dery, the Australian fighter and boxer, must not fight in the state of New York. It is understood, however, that this decree was issued only as a bluff, and that Dery will move to New Jersey to fight his match with Jim Lee.
