FSGA Senior State Champion

Chris Kappas (left) of Ponte Vedra Beach is presented the championship trophy by Florida State GA executive director Cal Korf following the annual FSGA Senior Championship Apr. 28-29 at Gainesville CC. Kappas shot 75-71--146 to win the title by one shot over Bill Scarbrough of Jacksonville. Kappas, 65, moved to Florida from Racine, Wis. in 1978. He is the current Sawgrass club champion (last two years) and was the Wisconsin State Senior champ in 1976. He won the inaugural Wisconsin Governor's cup and was the Racine CC champ six times. He has also won club titles at Meadowbrook and Kenosha in Wisconsin and has claimed the club title at Ponte Vedra three times. He was the JAGA senior champion in 1980. Kappas is chairman of the board of Lake Electric Motors in Racine. He is semi-retired and works part time on research and development of electric trolling motors for fishing. A complete list of winners from the 1984 FSGA State Senior Championship is on page 15.
