

PACETTI AND WILLIAMSON WIN THE FLORIDA STATE FOUR-BALL CHAMPIONSHIP

JULY 19, 1998

PONTE VEDRA, Fla. - St. Augustine's Sean Pacetti and Jacksonville's Kyle Williamson teamed to win the Florida State Four-Ball Championship by one stroke at TPC at Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra. Orlando's Michael Erickson and Casselberry's Chip Holcombe finished in second place.

With hole locations set in the exact positions as the final round of the 1997 Tournament Players Championship, Pacetti and Williamson shot a final-round 68 to claim the title. Erickson and Holcombe shot 66 to jump over 21 teams and finish in second place.

With the first round played at the Valley course, Port Orange's Daniel Hunter and Ormond Beach's Victor Lohman jumped out to the first round lead with a 65. Defending champions Steve Dodson and David Anthony fired a 66 to stand in second place. Twenty-one teams remained within at least five strokes of the lead after the first round.

Dodson and Anthony finished in third place with a 137 total. Hunter and Lohman shot a final-day 73 to fall to a fourth place tie with Albert Mlynarski and Tyler Smith of Port Orange. The top 10 rounded out with Fred Peel (Chipley) and Jerry Hicks (Tallahassee) tied for sixth with Sarasota's Ron Moxom and Carter Parry, and a three-way tie for eighth place with Jimmy Jones (Tampa)-Michael Walters (Tampa), Rob and Champ Madigan (Orlando) and Bill Henderson (Miami)-Gordon O'Neil (Aventura).
