

DEDICATION

The Florida Women's State Golf Association was honored to dedicate the Fifty-Sixth Annual Champion Tournament to our Founder, first champion in 1927, and President in 1936:

MRS. JOHN L. HOLMES

The original State Amateur Trophy

Tammy Bowman won her second Amateur in 1986 at the Naples Beach Hotel and Golf Club by defeating Joan Pirkle in the final match.

Leslie Shannon won her fifth championship at Grenelefe in 1987 by defeating Tammy Bowman. In 1988 Pam McCloskey won at Amelia Island and Andrea Dornin won her first championship at Saddlebrook in 1989.

Michelle McGann dominated the State Junior Girls in the eighties, winning three consecutive championships - 1985, 1986 and 1987.

1985 FWSGA BOARD
